

According to COI

The Constitution is a set of fundamental principles according to which a state or other organization is governed

The idea of to have a Constituent assembly for the first time in India is given by M. N. ROY

The Constitution declares India sovereign Socialist, secular and democratic and assures all its Citizens of justice Equality, Liberty and ~~indecent~~ endowments to promote ~~fast~~ fraternity among them

History of Indian Constitution

The Constituent assembly was formed in 1946 under the scheme formulated by Cabinet mission plan.

Total strength of assembly was 389.
out of 296 were elect to represent the British India.
and 93 seats were allotted for the princely states