

The One clock cycle of clock will be Completed at each step for example if the step Counter is said to One then after Completing One clock cycle, the step Counter will set to 1 to 11 and the first task has 13 on the task number.

The external i/p is used to tell the Control signal generator about the interrupts which will affect the execution of an instruction.