

Set datatype:-

- It is a comma separated value enclosed with in a power of $\{\}$.
- No duplicate values are allowed in a set
- Elements can not be indexed on their position.

$\{2, 5, 7\}$ is same as $\{7, 2, 5\}$

- A set is represented by class set

Ex:-

$S_1 = \{5, 3, 2, 6, 9, 12\}$

$S_2 = \text{set}(\text{"apple"})$

Print (S_2)

$\{'a', 'p', 'p', 'l', 'e'\}$

Dictionary

Dictionary:-

- It is a collection of key value pairs of elements separated by comma and enclosed within a pair of curly bracket.

Ex

$D = \{ \text{'Name': 'John'}, \text{'Age': 20}, \text{'CGPA': 8.5} \}$

↓ ↓
key value

- Elements can't be indexed based on their position.