

Introduction to HTML 5

HTML 5 → 5th version of HTML. It is standard language used to structure web pages. It defines how content on a web page should be structured and displayed.

Features of HTML 5

- Multimedia support → audio, video
- New form control
- Web storage
- Semantic elements → uses tags like `<header>` and `<footer>`
- Improved performance.
- Vector Graphics → using variety of shapes and color using in javascript
- Nav tag - The set of navigation link, It is used for the part of an internet site that links different pages.
- Place holder attribute - The place holder attributes offers a brief description of an input area
- E-mail attribute - When the form's input type is "email" the browser